

David Corrigan

Chief Executive Officer - Corrigan Investments, Inc.

David Corrigan is Chief Executive Officer of Corrigan Investments, Inc. David is active in managing the strategic growth pattern of the Company. He is also responsible for implementing new policies and innovative procedures to ensure the highest standards of service and quality are maintained in a manner consistent with Corrigan family tradition.

David received his Bachelors degree from Austin College in Sherman, Texas and a graduate degree from TCU Ranch Management School. He maintains a strong commitment to the community. He has served as president and is a long-standing member of the Dallas Museum of Natural History's Board of Trustees and is a member and president of the Board of Trustees for the Lamplighter School. He also is affiliated with the Real Estate Council, The Dallas Assembly, North Texas Commercial Association of Realtors and Trinity Episcopal Church. He also serves on the board of the Greater Dallas Chamber.

David and his wife, Emily, are the parents of a daughter and two sons. David enjoys fishing and hunting.