

Nonstop Flight Times from Dallas-Fort Worth

The Dallas-Fort Worth region is globally connected. Dallas Fort Worth International Airport is one of the top 50 most internationally connected airports according to OAG Aviation Worldwide, including a top 5 U.S. ranking.

In fact, DFW Airport netted many new domestic and international flights in 2019. Although 2020 resulted in the suspension of some routes, new flights were added. 2019-2020 highlights include:

- With a new flight to St. Thomas in the U.S. Virgin Islands that launched in December 2019, DFW passed Chicago O'Hare for having nonstop flights to the most domestic destinations.

- American Airlines now offers Boeing 787 Dreamliner international service to Paris, Sao Paulo and Seoul.

- In 2020, American Airlines launched 3 new destinations from DFW Airport to Mexico - La Paz, Loreto and Manzanillo.

- Also in 2020, DFW Airport and Love Field launched many new domestic flights including Colorado Springs, Daytona Beach, Long Beach, Panama City Beach, Savannah, and Telluride.

DFW Airport earned the No. 1 ranking for customer service in 2019, and Dallas Love Field took the No. 1 spot in as the best airport in its region and size class in 2020 from Airports Council International.

The number of nonstop flights from Dallas Fort Worth International Airport and Love Field provides travelers with plenty of options as well as convenience. New international routes, more carriers, and increases in air service destinations confirm DFW's place as a global super hub.
