

Higher Education Accolades

In many ways the the Dallas-Fort Worth region is the intellectual capitol of Texas. The Dallas Region's 70-plus accredited universities and colleges provide the intellectual horsepower to drive one of the nation's most diverse economies. To do so, students, faculty, and other academics engage in a wide range of studies, from tackling core curricula to honing nanotechnology. The University of North Texas at Denton, the University of Texas at Dallas, and the University of Texas at Arlington are among Texas' seven "emerging research" universities in the Dallas Region, a greater concentration than any other Texas region. UT Southwestern Medical Center, meanwhile, is among the nation's best in biology and biochemistry research, resulting in numerous clinical breakthroughs and innovations, as well as six Nobel Laureates.
