

Nonstop Flight Times From Dallas-Fort Worth

The Dallas-Fort Worth region is globally connected. DFW International Airport is the third-most globally connected airport megahub in the U.S. according to OAG Aviation Worldwide. In 2024, DFW Airport added or announced new international and domestic flights. Recent highlights include:

- American Airlines established new flights to Barcelona, Brisbane, Rio De Janeiro, Nadi (Fiji), Tulum, and Veracruz. The airline also announced that it will launch new service from DFW Airport to Hong Kong, Quebec, Tampico, and Venice in 2025.

- A total of 18 foreign-based airlines fly out of DFW Airport including AeroMexico, Air Canada, Air France, British Airways, Emirates Airways, Finnair, Iberia, Japan Airlines, Korean Air Lines, Lufthansa, Qantas, Qatar Airways, Turkish Airlines, and Cathay Pacific.

- Domestically, American Airlines added new service to Albany, NY in 2023 and added service in 2024 to Appleton, WI, Provo, UT, Tupelo, MS, and Redmond, OR. In 2025, American will fly to New Haven, CT, and Columbus, MS.

- Southwest Airlines services 73 markets out of Love Field, including three destinations—Providence, RI, Oakland, CA, and Long Beach, CA—not served by DFW Airport for a total of 262 unique destinations accessible from Dallas-Fort Worth.

The number of nonstop flights from DFW International Airport and Love Field provides travelers with plenty of options as well as convenience. New international routes, more carriers, and increases in air service destinations confirm DFW's place as a global super hub.
